

ARTHOVEN Privacy Policy

Introduction

At ARTHOVEN, we are committed to protecting your privacy and handling your personal data with care and transparency, in full compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and Dutch privacy laws.

Data We Collect

We may collect personal data such as your name and email address when you: subscribe to our newsletter; register for a workshop or event; contact us via our website, email, or social media. We do not collect unnecessary data, and we do not store financial or payment information through our website.

How We Use Your Data

We use your personal data only for the purposes for which you have given consent, including: sending newsletters, updates, and announcements about ARTHOVEN events and workshops; responding to your messages and inquiries; improving our communication and services. You can unsubscribe from our mailing list at any time using the link provided in each email or by contacting us directly.

Sharing Your Data

We do not sell, rent, or share your personal data with third parties for marketing purposes. We may use trusted service providers (for example, mailing systems or website hosting) to help us operate our services. These partners are required to handle your data securely and in accordance with GDPR.

Data Security

We use appropriate technical and organizational measures to keep your personal data safe from unauthorized access, loss, or misuse. However, no online system can be guaranteed to be 100% secure.

Your Rights

Under the GDPR, you have the right to: access, correct, or delete your personal data; restrict or object to the processing of your data; withdraw consent at any time; request data portability. To exercise these rights, please contact us at arthoven.2025@gmail.com.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy occasionally to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. The latest version will always be available on our website.
